WORLD LANGUAGE JAMBOREE

WL Teachers Building Communicative Practice Together

The Foreign Language Council of San Diego is pleased to bring you this mini-conference. The theme this year is WL Teachers Building Communicative Practice Together. Our purpose is to empower the language teacher community to reframe and transform world language instruction around communication in multiple modalities and domains. Each session will teach and reinforce communicative principles through the lens of the following topics:

- Building community among teachers
- Target-language use
- Assessment and Integrated Performance Assessment
- New California standards
- Technology
- Student engagement

There will be sessions presented in several languages including Arabic, Hebrew, French, German, Spanish, ASL, and Filipino. Please join us!

Presented in collaboration with the California Language Teachers Association, the Southern Area International Language Network, the Language Acquisition Resource Center, and the San Diego County Office of Education
